What kind of city is Kadoma?

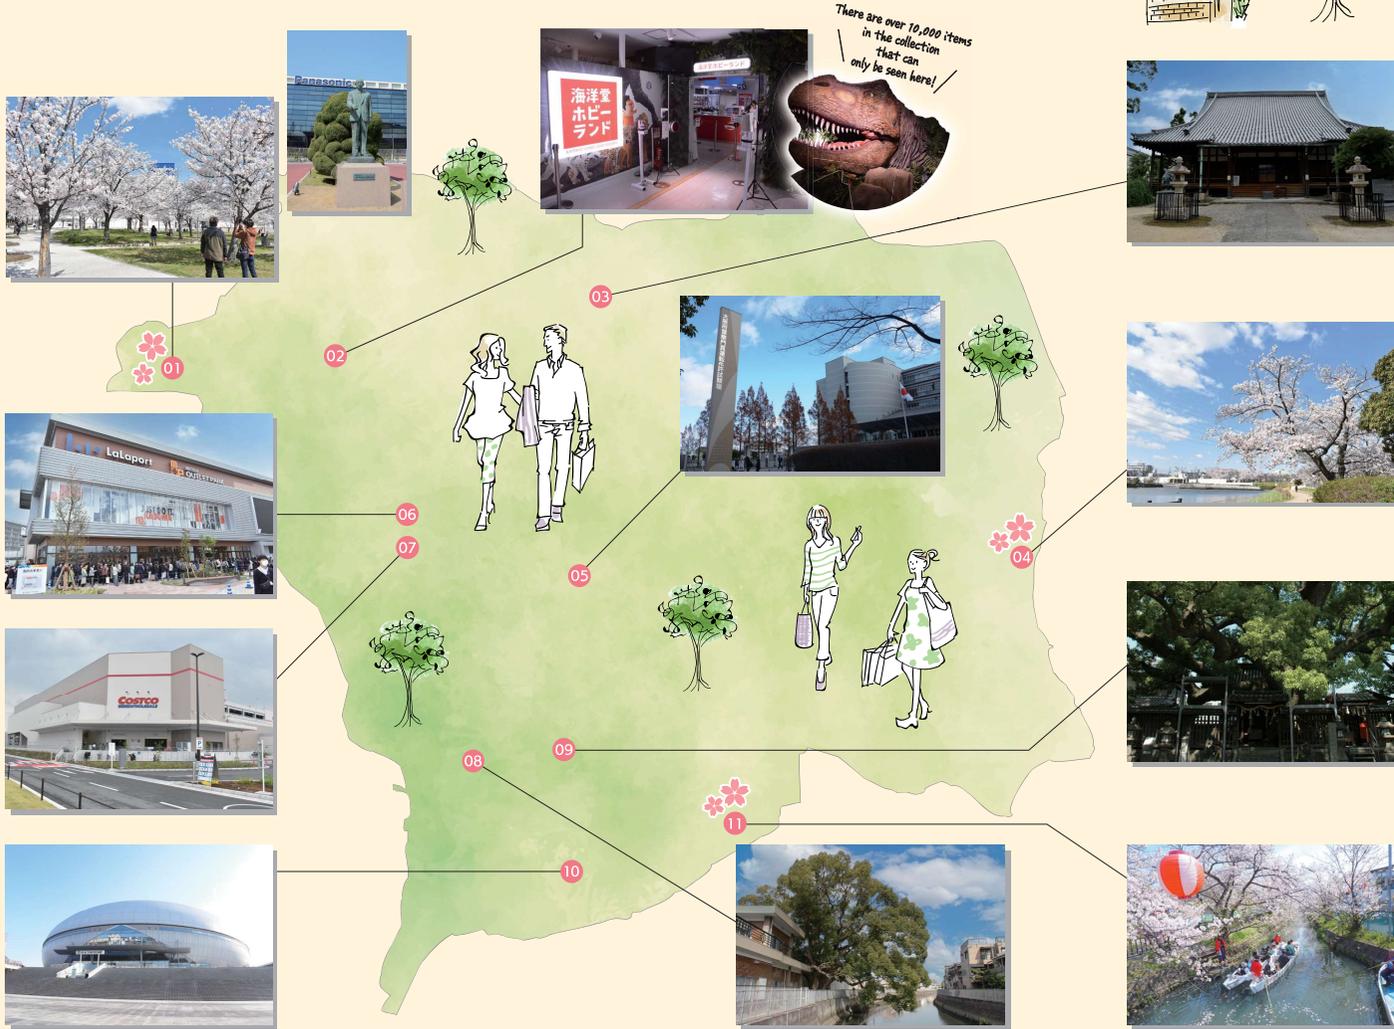

Kadoma City is located in the northeastern part of Osaka Prefecture. With a population of around 120,000, the city is relatively small, stretching approximately 4.9 km from east to west and covering an area of about 12.3 km². It is characterized by its flat terrain with no major undulations. This makes it easy for the elderly and people with disabilities to live here. When traveling within the city or its surrounding areas, you can walk, cycle or use public transportation instead of a car, making it convenient and comfortable to live here.

Kadoma City Tree and Flower

City Tree: Camphor Tree
City Flower: Satsuki (rhododendron)

01 Panasonic Museum Konosuke Matsushita Statue Sakuraku Square

Opened in 2018, it houses the Konosuke Matsushita History Museum, dedicated to the first honorary citizen of Kadoma City, the Panasonic Museum Shop, and Sakuraku Square. The museum also offers craft classes for children and lectures on Konosuke Matsushita.

02 Kaiyodo Hobby Land
KAIYODO Hobby Land, operated by the figure sculptor KAIYODO, is divided into 14 themed areas and features over 10,000 items on display, including exclusive collections. You can enjoy it alone or with family and friends. It has become a popular new attraction in Kadoma City that many people visit.

03 Gantokuji Temple

This temple, belonging to the Otani sect of Shinshu, was founded by Renny's son, Jitsugo, during the Eiroku era (1558-1570). Many of the temple's structures date back to the 17th century, including the entrance, study, guest room, and drum tower, which are registered as tangible cultural properties of Japan. The main hall, bell tower, and mountain gate are designated as tangible cultural properties of Osaka Prefecture.

04 Cherry blossoms at Benteike Park

This park has a large pond and a wide lawn. The cherry blossoms surrounded by nature are exceptional.

05 Kadoma Driver's License Examination Center
Many people go to the Kadoma Driver's License Examination Center, managed by the Osaka Prefectural Police, every day to apply for driver's licenses.

06 Mitsui Shopping Park LaLaport Kadoma Mitsui Outlet Park Osaka Kadoma

This is the first commercial complex in Japan that combines LaLaport and Mitsui Outlet Park. You can enjoy a one-stop experience with everything from everyday shopping such as fashion and food to extraordinary shopping such as brand shopping.

07 Costco Kadoma Warehouse

This park has a large pond and a wide lawn. The cherry blossoms surrounded by nature are exceptional.

08 Hiejima-no Kusu (camphor tree)

The second largest tree in Kadoma City is estimated to be about 400 years old. Also, this camphor tree is a rare giant tree found near a private residence and was designated a natural monument of Osaka Prefecture on February 20, 1970.

09 Kungai Kusu (camphor tree)

This camphor tree, located on the grounds of Mitsushima Shrine, is a nationally designated natural monument said to be over 1,000 years old. The tree is about 24 meters tall, has a trunk circumference of 13.1 meters and has been selected as one of the 100 Best Greens in Osaka.

10 Towa Pharmaceutical RACTAB Dome

The dome includes a gymnasium, pool and ice rink, used by about 500,000 people annually, including people from all over the world who come to see figure skating competitions and shows.

11 Cherry blossoms on Sunago Waterway

The Sunago Waterway runs north and south through the eastern part of Mitsushima. In spring, about 200 Somei-yoshino cherry trees, planted along both sides of the 500-meter waterway, bloom in full glory.

Local specialties of Kadoma City

Renkon (lotus root)

Seeds were brought from Kaga and Bitchu about 100 years ago; today they are cultivated as Kadoma Renkon (lotus root). Kadoma lotus root is grown in the clayey, iron-rich soil of Kadoma and is characterized by its chewy texture and strong sweetness.

Kadoma Renkon (lotus root) Agricultural Festival

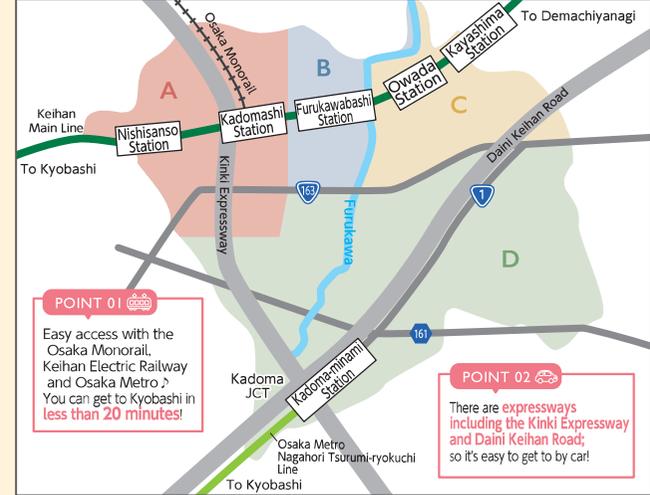

Kuwai (arrowhead)

Due to the distinctive way its buds grow, Kuwai is considered an auspicious item that symbolizes budding and is an indispensable part of celebrations such as New Year's in the Kiniki region. It is characterized by its fluffy texture and bitter taste.

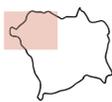

Transportation within the city

POINT 01
Easy access with the Osaka Monorail, Keihan Electric Railway and Osaka Metro. You can get to Kyobashi in less than 20 minutes!

POINT 02
There are expressways including the Kinki Expressway and Daimi Keihan Road, so it's easy to get to by car!
